

Winter 2006 Health Services Seminar Series
Thursdays, 12:00 – 1:15, Room 61-235 CHS

January 19

Bob Kaplan

“Modeling the Public Health Benefit of Tobacco Control Programs”

January 26

Marcia McGory

“Evaluating the Quality of Care for Elderly Patients Undergoing Major Abdominal Surgery”

February 2

Basit Chaudhry

“The Costs and Benefits of Health Information Technology: A Systematic Review”

February 9

Antonio Legorreta/Amanda Gilmore

“Creating a Unique Longitudinal Database Using National Registry Data and Commercial Claims: Studies of Solid Organ Transplant Recipients”

February 16

Richard Hector

“Validity of the Quality of Well-being Scale in a Developing Country: An Example from Trinidad and Tobago”

February 23

Duncan Neuhauser (Case Western Reserve University)

“Chronic Disease Care: Diabetes, Hypertension, and Sleeplessness with the Use of Statistical Process Control Methods”

March 2

Paul Torrens

“The Role of Health Services Research Technology Assessment”

March 9

Yaniv Hanoch and Tom Rice

“Manacled Competition: Limiting Health Insurance Choices for the Elderly”

March 16

Melissa Gatchell

“Discrimination Among Women Enrolled in Medicaid Managed Care: Effects on Cervical Cancer Screening”