

Logic Framework for the HIA of legislation providing limited injury liability to promote physical activity at schools and workplaces

NB: The logic framework does not attempt to represent all the factors influencing each link, only those factors expected to change as a result of the legislation.