A BROADER VIEW OF HEALTH:

Policies in All Sectors Make a Difference

Few see dental care as a core public health issue, but access and disparities concerns are great. Ron Andersen is among SPH faculty studying the issue.

Working with local investigators in one of the world's poorest nations, Anne Rimoin is helping to build an infrastructure that didn't exist previously.

Myralyn Nartey went to Ghana to play on the national women's soccer team. Now she is pursuing a Ph.D. to help girls in Africa.
