CAMPAIGN UCLA SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Progress toward goal as of April 15, 2004

Public Health Alumni Association career nights

DRIVEN BY THE OPPORTUNITY TO ASSIST the school's current students at the same time that they're reconnecting with friends and former classmates, the Public Health Alumni Association (PHAA) Student Support and Alumni Networking Committee has begun holding events to discuss public health careers and offer advice to students. During events held last winter and this spring, alumni offered information and internship advice in both large-group discussions and informal conversations. Students received assistance in making potential connections for informational and/or job interviews in a variety of public health fields and organizations. In addition, representatives from the UCLA Career Center presented students with general job-seeking, résumé-writing, and interview advice. Dean's Advisory Board member Eddie Dauer and his wife Joanne have generously provided support for these events.

The PHAA Student Support and Alumni Network Committee is headed by Catharina Wong, M.P.H. '01. Participating alumni and faculty have included (listed by department):
